

Freedom includes allowing me to pay for a service to obtain information. XM radio and it's traffic and weather channels is great information for me. I can not get it locally since the AM stations are not quality. Freedom of consumer choice is what our country is based on.